Notes to the financial statements

For the year ended 31 December 2022

1 Corporate information

Lions Eye Institute Limited is a not-for-profit company limited by guarantee incorporated on 1 October 2003 and domiciled in Australia. Its registered office and principal place of business is 2 Verdun Street, Nedlands WA 6009.

The financial statements of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2022 were authorised for issue in accordance with a resolution of the directors on 4 May 2023.

2 Significant Accounting Policies

2.1 Basis of Preparation

Statement of compliance

These general purpose financial statements have been prepared in compliance with the requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Act 2012 and Australian Accounting Standards – Simplified Disclosures.

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, unless disclosed otherwise. The accounting policies that have been adopted in the preparation of this report are appropriate to meet the needs of the members. The financial report is presented in Australian dollars and all values are rounded to the nearest dollar ($).

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which assumes the Company will be able to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company had a deficit of $4,708,035 (2021: $561,734). The Company had net current liabilities of $2,985,060 as at 31 December 2022 (2021: net current assets of $16,398,715). The working capital deficit will be funded through proceeds from sale of financial assets at fair value through profit and loss.

After taking into account all available information, the directors have concluded there are currently reasonable grounds to believe that the preparation of the 31 December 2022 financial statements on a going concern basis is appropriate. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded assets or to the amounts and classifications of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company not continue as a going concern.

2.2 Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the statement of financial position based on current/non-current classification.

An asset is current when it is: i) expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in the normal operating cycle, ii) held primarily for the purpose of trading, iii) expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period or iv) a cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period. All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when i) it is expected to be settled in the normal operating cycle, ii) it is held primarily for the purpose of trading, iii) it is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period or iv) there is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period. The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

2.3 Income tax

The Company is a charitable and/or public benevolent institution as described under Section 50-5 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 and is therefore exempt from income tax.

2.4 Research and development costs

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Development expenditure on an individual project is recognised as an intangible asset when the Company can demonstrate:

- The technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that the asset will be available for use or sale
- Its intention to complete and its ability and intention to use or sell the asset
- How the asset will generate future economic benefits
- The availability of resources to complete the asset
- The ability to measure reliably the expenditure during development.

Following initial recognition of development expenditure as an asset, the asset is carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation of the asset begins when development is complete, and the asset is available for use. It is amortised over the period of expected future benefit. Amortisation is recorded in profit or loss. During the period of development, the asset is tested for impairment at least annually.

2.5 Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

The new and amended Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations that apply for the first time in 2022 do not have an impact on the Company's financial statements. The Company has not early adopted any standards, interpretations or amendments that has been issued but is not yet effective. The Company intends to adopt the new or amended standards or interpretations when they become effective.

3 Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

Estimates and assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The Company based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Company. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

3 Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions (continued)

Provision for expected credit losses (ECLs)

The Company uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade and other receivables and cash balances. The assessment of the correlation between historical observed default rates, forecast economic conditions and ECLs is a significant estimate. The amount of ECLs is sensitive to changes in circumstances and of forecast economic conditions. The Company's historical credit loss experience and forecast of economic conditions may also not be representative of the customer's actual default in the future. The information about the ECLs on the Company's trade and other receivables is disclosed in Note 7.

Revenue from contracts with customers

Key judgements include determining whether the contract is enforceable, whether the performance obligations are sufficiently specific, the timing of revenue from contracts with customers in terms of timing of satisfaction of performance obligations and determining the transaction price and the amounts allocated to performance obligations. The information about the revenue from contracts with customers is disclosed in Note 4.

Income for not-for-profit entities

Key judgements include determining whether funds are restricted and whether there is an obligation to repay unspent funds. The information about other income is disclosed in Note 5.

Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company determines whether non-financial assets are impaired at least on an annual basis. This requires an estimation of the recoverable amount of the cash-generating units to which the non-current assets are allocated. The Company's accounting policy with regards to impairment of non-financial assets is discussed in Note 12.

Annual leave

Liabilities for annual leave expected to be settled within twelve months of the reporting date are recognised in provisions in respect of employees' services up to the reporting date. They are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. Non-accumulating sick leave is recognised when the leave is taken and measured at the rates paid or payable.

Long service leave

A liability for long service leave is recognised, and is measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date. Consideration is given to expected future wage and salary levels, experience of employee departures and periods of service. Expected future payments are discounted using the maturity rates of corporate bonds and inflated using a long-term rate.

All revenue is derived in Australia.

Revenue recognition policy

The Company recognises revenue under AASB 15 Revenue from contracts with customers ("AASB 15") or AASB 1058 Income for not-for-profit entities ("AASB 1058"), where appropriate. In cases where there is an enforceable contract with a customer with sufficiently specific performance obligations, the transaction is accounted under AASB 15 where income is recognised when the performance obligations are satisfied. Revenue is measured based on the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in a contract with a customer and excludes amounts collected on behalf of third parties.

AASB 1058 applies when a not-for-profit entity enters into a transaction where the consideration paid to acquire an asset is significantly less than the fair value of the asset acquired principally to enable the Company to further its objectives. Any excess over the carrying amount of the asset acquired is recognised in profit or loss as income. Income is recognised when the Company obtains control of the asset.

Revenue from sale of goods and services and other ancillary income

Revenue from sale of goods and services and other ancillary income are recognised at the point in time when either control of the good sold is transferred to the customer or service is rendered. This is reflective of the transfer of control of the good or service to the customer.

Grants (including research)

The Company receives various grants for purposes of funding specific research and other activities. Revenue is measured at the amount of consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for the provision of the various milestones. Revenue is recognised over time as the services are provided with reference to the input method over the period during which the milestones are achieved. When there are conditions attached to funds received for specific purposes it is recognised in the statement of financial position as a contract liability until such conditions are met or services provided.

The Company also receives grants to be used for its principal activities with no restrictions. As there are no sufficiently specific performance obligations under the arrangement, grant revenue is recognised at the point in time when the amount is received by the Company or when the Company becomes entitled to the amount.

For capital grants such as grants received to acquire or construct an asset, income is recognised when or as the obligations of the capital grants are met which will be when the asset is acquired or over the construction period.

4 Revenue from ordinary activities (continued)

Donations and bequests

The Company receives donations with no restrictions to enable the Company to further its objectives. Donation income is measured at the fair value of the consideration or asset received. Donation income is recognised at the point in time when the Company obtains control over the asset.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised if a payment is received, or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Company transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Company performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

Dividend income

Dividend income is earned from the investments in equity funds and shares, which are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

Dividend income is recognised when the Company has established that it has a right to receive a dividend.

Interest income

Interest income is recognised as interest accrues using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. This is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset and allocating the interest income over the relevant period using the EIR.

Government assistance and subsidies (including JobKeeper payments)

The Company accounts for government assistance and subsidies as income from the government as they are payments to enable the Company to further its objectives by continuing to employ its existing staff during the COVID-19 pandemic. These are mainly JobKeeper payments and cash flow boosts as part of the Government's response to COVID-19. The related amounts paid to employees are recognised as employee benefit expenses.

Cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position comprises cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with maturity of three months or less, that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Cash at bank earns interest at floating rates based on daily bank deposit rates. Short-term deposits are made for varying periods of between one day and three months, depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Company, and earn interest at the respective short-term deposit rates. The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents approximate their fair value.

Restricted cash represents funds earmarked for specific purposes that are spent at the discretion of the Company.

Restricted cash deposit – Ian Constable Chair in Discovery and Translational Ophthalmic Science

Donations received in response to a fundraising campaign to endow the Ian Constable Chair in Discovery and Translational Ophthalmic Science at the University of Western Australia have been designated by the Company as restricted use. Restricted cash deposit may be invested in investments in equity funds and shares (Note 11) when approved by the Finance, Audit and Investment Committee.

	3,890,330	5,393,709

Trade and other receivables are non-interest bearing and are generally on terms of 30 to 90 days.

Recognition and measurement

Trade and other receivables are initially recognised at the fair value of the consideration receivable including directly attributable transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the company has applied the practical expedient are measured at the original transaction price.

Subsequent measurement

Considering that trade and other receivables are settled within the short term, the Company does not consider the effect of time value of money to be material. Trade and other receivables are therefore subsequently measured at cost and considered for impairment in line with the ECL model as described below.

Impairment

The Company recognises an allowance for ECL for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original EIR. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

For trade and other receivables, the Company applies a simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Therefore, the Company does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Company has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Recognition and measurement

Property, plant and equipment is initially recognised at acquisition cost, including any costs directly attributable to bringing the assets into the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the management. Property, plant and equipment that has been contributed at no cost, or for nominal cost, is valued and recognised at the fair value of the asset at the date acquisition. Capital work in progress is stated at cost, net of accumulated impairment losses, if any. Depreciation of the asset begins when construction is complete and the asset is available for use.

Subsequent measurement

Property, plant and equipment is subsequently measured using the cost model, less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the useful lives of the assets, commencing from the time the asset is held ready for use. Land is not depreciated.

ACN 106 521 439

12 Property, plant and equipment (continued)

The useful lives of the assets are determined on an individual basis but in general the annual depreciation rates used for each class of depreciable assets are:

	2022	2021
Class of property, plant and equipment
Buildings	2 - 4	2 - 4
Building improvements	5-20	5-20
Plant and equipment	5-25	5-25

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each reporting date.

Impairment

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Derecognition

Any gain or loss on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

The Company assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

The Company as a lessee

The Company applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Company recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

Measurement and recognition of leases as a lessee

At lease commencement date, the Company recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet. The right-of-use asset is measured at cost, which is made up of the initial measurement of the lease liability, any initial direct costs incurred by the company, an estimate of any costs to dismantle and remove the asset at the end of the lease, and any lease payments made in advance of the lease commencement date (net of any incentives received). Where the company has a number of leases that have significantly below-market terms and conditions these are also recognised at cost.

The Company depreciates the right-of-use assets on a straight-line basis from the lease commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. Depreciation expense has been included in direct operating expense and administration expenses. The Company also assesses the right-of-use asset for impairment when impairment indicators exist.

The Company measures the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments unpaid at that date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease if that rate is readily available or the incremental borrowing rate where the rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability are made up of fixed payments (including in substance fixed), variable payments based on an index or rate, amounts expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee and payments arising from options reasonably certain to be exercised.

Subsequent to initial measurement, the liability will be reduced for payments made and increased for interest. It is remeasured to reflect any reassessment or modification, or if there are changes in in-substance fixed payments. When the lease liability is remeasured, the corresponding adjustment is reflected in the right-of-use asset or profit and loss if the right-of-use asset is already reduced to zero.

13 Leases (continued)

The Company has elected to account for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets using the practical expedients. Instead of recognising a right-of-use asset and lease liability, the payments in relation to these are recognised as an expense in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company's leases are both commercial leases and peppercorn leases, but the values above do not contain any component of the peppercorn leases. Management has opted to use the cost approach to the accounting treatment of both peppercorn leases of which the values were $0 and $1 and therefore any values of those leases are not recognised in the financial statements. The peppercorn leases relate to facilities used for medical and scientific research to achieve the Company's principal activities. These leases are automatically renewed upon termination, unless terminated by the lessors.

Presented below is a maturity analysis of future lease payments:

The amount of expense relating to short-term leases and leases of low-value assets recognised in profit or loss for the year ended 31 December 2022 is $17,325 (2021: $145,759).

Independent auditor's report to the members of Lions Eye Institute Limited

Opinion

We have audited the financial report of Lions Eye Institute Limited (the Company), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 31 December 2022, the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies, and the directors' declaration.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial report of the Company is in accordance with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012, including:

- a. Giving a true and fair view of the Company's financial position as at 31 December 2022 and of its financial performance for the year ended on that date; and
- b. Complying with Australian Accounting Standards - Simplified Disclosures and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Regulation 2013.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Information other than the financial report and auditor's report thereon

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information is the directors' report accompanying the financial report.

Our opinion on the financial report does not cover the other information and accordingly we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial report, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial report or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the directors for the financial report

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards - Simplified Disclosures and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- ▶ Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- ▶ Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- ▶ Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- ▶ Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
